BRUCE V. RAUNER

Bruce Rauner is a principal of private equity and venture capital firm GTCR, where he and his partners have helped form and finance the growth of over 200 companies in diverse industries including business services, technology, and healthcare. Prior to joining GTCR in 1981, Bruce worked in strategic consulting with Bain and Company and in economic analysis with Data Resources, Inc.

Bruce has served on the boards of numerous civic and philanthropic organizations including New Schools for Chicago, The Noble Network of Charter Schools, Chicago Communities In Schools, Ravinia Festival, CFA Society of Chicago, the Metropolitan Pier and Exposition Authority, and World Business Chicago. He is Chairman of the Education Committee of the Civic Committee of The Commercial Club of Chicago, Chairman of the Chicago Convention and Tourism Bureau, Co-Chairman of the Chicago-China Initiative, Chairman of ACT Charter School, and Past Chairman of the Chicago Public Education Fund.

Bruce was the key donor for local projects including Chicago's new Red Cross regional headquarters, the YMCA in the Little Village neighborhood, six new charter high schools on the near west side, an AUSL turnaround campus, scholarship programs for disadvantaged Illinois public school students, and achievement-based compensation systems for teachers and principals in Chicago Public Schools. He provided major funding for the construction of the Rauner Special Collections Library at Dartmouth College, endowed full professor Chairs at Dartmouth College, Morehouse College, University of Chicago and Harvard Business School, and was the lead donor for the Stanley C. Golder Center for Private Equity and Entrepreneurial Finance at the University of Illinois.

Bruce serves on the board of the National Fish & Wildlife Foundation, works with the Nature Conservancy and Montana Land Reliance to preserve ranch land and wildlife habitat in Montana, and received the Murie-Broome Award from The Wilderness Society for outstanding work in wilderness preservation.

Bruce was the 2008 Philanthropist of the Year for the Chicago AFP and received the Daley Medal from the Illinois Venture Capital Association for extraordinary support to the Illinois economy. Bruce and his wife, Dr. Diana Mendley Rauner, received the Golden Apple Foundation's 2011 Community Service Award. Diana is President of the Ounce of Prevention Fund, an education, research and advocacy public-private partnership which operates innovative early education programs nationwide.

A Chicago native, Bruce received a B.A. degree in economics, summa cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa, from Dartmouth College and an M.B.A. from Harvard University. He is an avid fly fisher, bird hunter, backpacker, skier, golfer, and motorcycle and horseback rider. Bruce and Diana have six children and live in Chicago.
